what makes Stewardship different

our mission

As a mission-focussed Christian charity, our objective is to strengthen the clients we work with. We want to help strengthen financial health, protect reputation and provide support where it is needed. Our consultancy helpline service has been created to give you peace of mind knowing that we are on your side.

our approach

We want to help keep churches and Christian charities on track when it comes to legislation, obligations and the law. As part of our commitment, Stewardship heavily subsidise this service and in most cases our annual fee would cost the same as one hour of expert advice.

lead consultants

Each of our consultants has operated within their field of expertise for a significant period of time, holds a professional qualification and has been involved in church and charity positions of responsibility.
